In Loving Memory of

Jimmy Earl Rice
(July 10, 1955 - August 8, 2011)

Be open to your dreams, people. Embrace that distant shore. Because our mortal journey is over all too soon.

David Assael

The background is a textured, light brown or beige color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, blending into the background.

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white color, making them stand out against the darker background.

You were a very good Brother and I love you with all my heart. I know you are in a better place but I will miss you greatly.

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a background of soft, textured, light brown or beige tones. The roses are rendered in a slightly faded, artistic style, blending into the background. The overall mood is somber and elegant.

For my beloved Brother and family

August 21, 2011

I might not have been the best sister in the world but I loved you dearly. I will always be here for your family. You could not have had a better wife and children than what you picked.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is smaller and more tightly closed, while the other is larger and more open, showing its petals. The roses are rendered in a slightly darker shade than the background, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

When you were born you must have already been a cowboy because from the time that you were very small you would put your jeans and cowboy boots on and go out and ride the gas meter for hours.

I have so many memories of you. I love the one of me you and Gee going to check the trout lines and you pulling up that big catfish . It just looked like a monster. It scared me. There are so many many wonderful memories of you.

The background is a textured, light brown or beige surface. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open rose with many layers of petals. The roses are rendered in a soft, slightly faded style, blending into the background.
